Artist of the Month

Joy McCarrick is our November artist. A resident of Lee, Joy is a self-taught painter who usually finds her inspiration in nature, particularly landscapes. She has been painting since childhood, working in a variety of media including oil, acrylic, pastel, watercolor and others. Her subjects include a wide range of settings and views in and around the New England and California towns in which she has lived. You can find Joy's work at Sunshine Valley Studios.

Major General John Sullivan Wednesday, November 1 7 p.m.

Lee Safety Complex

We are delighted to present a program about Major General John Sullivan by our guest speaker Douglas MacLennan of Durham. General Sullivan was a key figure in the 1774 raid on Fort William and Mary in New Castle. He led troops in the invasion of Quebec, at the Battle of Long Island, the Battle of Trenton and the Battles of Brandywine and Germantown. In 1779 General Washington selected Sullivan to lead the Expedition against the Iroquois in upstate New York. Sullivan twice served as a delegate to the Continental Congress.

Cosponsored by the Lee Historical Society and the Lee Public Library.

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

1000 Books Before Kindergarten is a program that encourages Lee families to read 1000 books with their young children before they enter kindergarten. It's easy - just register and keep track of how many books you've read on a reading log. We'll help you celebrate the first 100 books milestone with the gift of a canvas book bag. And at each 100 books mark, you'll get a 100 books sticker. Reach 1000 and you'll receive a copy of Miss Bindergarten Gets Ready for Kindergarten! Registration is ongoing. Program underwritten by the Friends of the Lee Library.
