September/October Artist

Our featured artist for the months of September and October is Lee resident, Yanjin Xu.

Yanjin is a self-taught artist who has loved art since she was a child. After marrying a famous local artist, she started her own drawings and hand crafts. Her artwork mixes different cultures and shows the lovely heart of the woman's world.

This exhibition features oil pastel drawings, glass art, and hand crafted jewelry. You can find her artwork at the store "Li Ming Art" at the Fox Run Mall.

Underground Railroad—Colson Whitehead

"Far and away the most anticipated literary novel of the year, The Underground Railroad marks a new triumph for Whitehead...[A] book that resonates with deep emotional timbre. The Underground Railroad reanimates the slave narrative, disrupts our settled sense of the past and stretches the ligaments of history right into our own era...The canon of essential novels about America's peculiar institution just grew by one."

John Stark - Presented by Paul Timmerman of the Woodman Museum in Dover.
Wednesday, October 2, 2019
7 p.m.
Public Safety Complex

John Stark was a NH native who was born in Londonderry and lived in Manchester. He served as an officer in the British Army during the French and Indian War and in the Continental Army during the American Revolution. He became widely known as the “Hero of Bennington” for his exemplary service at the Battle of Bennington.

Please join us to learn more about this quintessential citizen soldier who is responsible for the New Hampshire state motto “Live Free or Die”.

This is a joint co-sponsored event with the Lee Historical Society and the Lee Public Library. Refreshments will be served.
