The Backyard Farming Initiative is Back! Join us every 4th Wednesday until August for Backyard Farming Fun! This month, on Wednesday April 27, from 6:00pm—7:30pm, we will visit Lee resident, Bambi Miller. Bambi will be talking about her own backyard farming habits, fruit trees, livestock, and we'll take a walk down the river trail! Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Lee Public Library and the Lee Agricultural Society. Call or email Lee Public Library for further details, and to sign up

Find the silly Egg! During April we will hide over 100 eggs around the library building (inside and out!). Each egg contains a joke... tell the joke to a librarian and get a piece of candy! Anyone can join in!

Join our Library Friends! Did you know our Library Friends fund museum passes, children's programming and much more?! They are a super fun group who meet monthly to help enhance our programs, support our team and help make our library a great place to visit! Our Friends are always looking for new members, so stop by their notice board the next time you are in the library, take a flyer, and join them!
