Wednesday September 6, 7:00pm – 8:00pm – Banjos, Bones, and Ballads, in partnership with The Lee Historical Society and NH Humanities: Traditional songs, rich in local history and a sense of place, present the latest news from the distant past. They help us to interpret present-day life with an understanding of the working people who built our country. Tavern songs, banjo tunes, 18th century New England hymns, sailor songs, and humorous stories about traditional singers and their songs highlight this informative program by Jeff Warner. To be held in the Lee Public Library program space.

Thursday September 7, 14, 21 & 28, 3:30pm – 4:45pm – After School Story Time & Craft: Students will be walked from Mast Way and should be picked up from the program space before 4:45pm. Attendance has been capped at 20!

Monday September 11, 18 & 25, 10:00am – 10:45am – Gentle Yoga in Partnership with the Lee Recreation Department: Basic yoga poses done at a less intense and slower pace with an emphasis on stretching. The class will incorporate the use of a chair for those needing some assistance with balance movement and with difficulty getting to the floor for mat work. We will finish with breath work and simple meditation to relax and slow the mind and body. Modifications will be demonstrated to help and welcome people of ALL fitness levels enjoy the benefits of class without risk of injury and with respect for any physical limitations. The cost is $5 per class or unlimited Monthly Senior Pass for $25. All classes must be prepaid, payment can be made online or in person at the Town Office with either Caren or Denise. Questions, please contact crossi@leenh.org or call 659-6783.
