Artist of the Month

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Charlotte Mandell has been a resident of Lee, NH since 1972. She was a faculty member at the University of Massachusetts Lowell for 38 years. On retirement, she discovered alcohol inks. Since then she has been experimenting with a variety of different techniques creating abstract and “near-realistic” landscapes and still-lives. She is drawn to the vibrancy and the fluidity of the inks and is happy to talk to anyone interested in exploring this medium.

Schools of Lee

Presented by Phyllis White
Wednesday, April 4 @ 7 p.m.
Lee Safety Complex

Phyllis will preview her upcoming book about schools in Lee: town schools to district schools; private schools, school-masters and prominent women educators; one-room schoolhouses; formation of the Oyster River Cooperative School District and the early years of Mastway. Program is free. Refreshments will be served.

Cosponsored by the Lee Historical Society and the Lee Public Library.

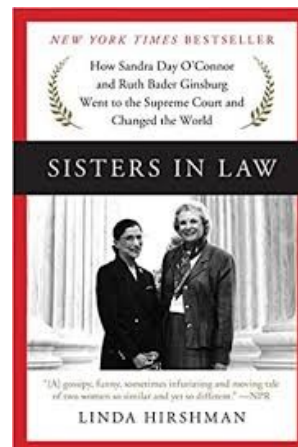

Adult Book Discussion

Monday, April 9@7:00 p.m.

“Sisters In Law” Linda Hirshman

For anyone interested in the court, women’s history or both, the story of Sandra Day O’Connor and Ruth Bader Ginsburg, their separate routes to the Supreme Court and what they accomplished during the more than 12 years they spent together is irresistible. (Linda Greenhouse, New York Times Book Review)
