New Hampshire Cemeteries and Gravestones

Wednesday, April 3, 2019
7 p.m.

Lee Safety Complex

Rubbings, photographs, and slides illustrate the rich variety of gravestones to be found in our own neighborhoods, but they also tell long-forgotten stories of such historical events as the Great Awakening, the Throat Distemper epidemic, and the American Revolution. Find out more about these deeply personal works of art and the craftsmen who carved them with Glenn Knoblock, and learn how to read the stone "pages" that give insight into the vast genealogical book of New Hampshire.

Cosponsored by the Lee Historical Society and the Lee Public Library.

New Hampshire Humanities programs are made possible in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH).

David Grann

“A masterful work of literary journalism crafted with the urgency of a mystery. . . . Contained within Grann's mesmerizing storytelling lies something more than a brisk, satisfying read. Killers of the Flower Moon offers up the Osage killings as emblematic of America's relationship with its indigenous peoples and the 'culture of killing' that has forever marred that tie.” Boston Globe
