Adult Book Discussion Monday, January 8 7:00 p.m. "Emma" by Jane Austen

"Emma, when first published in 1816, was written when Jane Austen was at the height of her powers. In it, we have her two greatest comic creations -- the eccentric Mr. Woodhouse and that quintessential bore, Miss Bates. In it, too, we have her most profound characterization: the witty, imaginative, self-deluded Emma, a heroine the author declared "no one but myself will much like," but who has been much loved by generations of readers. --From the Publisher

How To Check Your Library Account Through the Online Catalog

Our online catalog has many features. Go to leelibrarynh.org and click on Catalog in the salmon-colored bar at the top of the screen. This will bring you to a page where you can log on to your account in the upper right corner using your last name and library card number.

Once you have logged on, you can renew books by clicking on “my items” as long as you renew before the item is due. You can also reserve books and choose authors to watch so that you will be alerted when the library purchases one of their books.

Take some time to explore. You’ll be glad you did.
