Lee, NH 03861-6612

We All Need FRIENDS!

Please be a Friend to our Library!

The Friends of the Lee Public Library is a NH non-profit 501(c)3 organization whose mission is to support Lee Public Library programs through membership and fundraising.

Please join the Friends of the Lee Public Library - become a member and support your library!

With your membership, the Friends support expanded library services that include:

- Discounted Museum Passes
- Youth School Vacation Programs
- Summer Reading Programs
- Adult Workshops and Speakers

Your continued commitment through this year's annual membership campaign will help make exciting opportunities available to all members of the Lee community.

Please complete the form (please print) and return it along with your check payable to "Friends of Lee Public Library" at the above address. Copies are also available in the library.

We are also looking for active participants for our Board! Would you like to help with fundraising, flyer design, computer work, events, and new ideas?
