Artist of the Month

September 2016

The library was Elizabeth Meeker's favorite place when she moved to Lee in 1979. Bringing her fabric flower pictures, inspired by the Lee Farmers Market, to the Library is something Elizabeth is very excited about. A lot of the fabric used in the pictures and sculptures are her husband's recycled old cloth baby diapers, as well as other fabrics gleaned from the "Lee Emporium" (Swap shop). Elizabeth hopes to inspire others to use reclaimed fabrics to make art!

Elizabeth's fiber art wall hangings and sculptures will be on display at the library September 1 through October 31.
